About:

L.E.FT is a NYC-based design collective comprised of architects Makram el Kadi and Ziad Jamaledine. Established in New York in 2001. The firm has been recognized internationally with numerous awards, publications and exhibitions for quality and excellence in design. The partners combine their architectural practice with research projects they conduct in the form of studios at several universities in the U.S. including Yale, UPenn, Cornell University and Columbia University Graduate School of Architecture, Planning and Preservation. The firm is the recipient of the prestigious 2002 Young Architects Award and 2010 Emerging Voices from the Architectural League of New York, and a finalist for MoMA's 2009 Young Architects Program, and has been selected as the 2010 Design Vanguard by the Architectural Record Magazine.
